“ Leadership and Self Deception ” didn ’ t resonate with me. I found it simplistic in its blanket rule approach of “ we are all hardwired to be nice ” . But it can be good for people with a superiority complex or people who lack empathy. It has plenty of great reviews though, so maybe you will find it helpful for you.

Leadership and Self-Deception -Self-deception is the most common and most destructive element in many organizations and in our lives.

When people fail to treat others as people, and instead regard them as objects, they betray the call to honor the humanity of other people and to treat everyone with respect. People justify this behavior by created a distorted view of reality, or a “ box, ” in which they can blame others. While people are “ in the box, ” they focus more on protecting their
