by Paul Gionfriddo; New York, Columbia University Press, 2014, 247 pages. Paul Gionfriddo ' s expos é Losing Tim sheds light on the failure to anticipate unintended consequences of a seemingly well-intended policy. As a former state policy maker for the state of Connecticut, Mr. Gionfriddo played a role in the policy to minimize the role of large psychiatric institutions and transition patients to community mental health centers, halfway houses, schools, and supported workplaces.
